

Building Capacity of Nonprofit Organizations

Next Workshop: February 7

2018 Tax Law & Human Resource Updates, Keep Your Nonprofit Out of Hot Water

Learn about the most-up-to-date tax law and Human Resource information. Get an overview on changes, and how they affect your non-profit. Learn how to properly identify and correct these issues to keep your nonprofit mission strong.

Presenter: Jim Provenza Attorney, CPA, and Nonprofit Consultant of James C Provenza & Associates, PC. Their services for nonprofits include obtaining or maintaining tax exempt status, and advising on employment law, fundraising and unrelated business income tax issues. In addition, Jim is a consultant with the Northern Illinois Center for Nonprofit Excellence at Rockford University.

HAPPENING MONTHLY

1st Fridays: Friday Focus on Finding Learn how to conduct an online grant search. Find out where to look online to view sample documents.

2nd Fridays: Introduction to Resources Find out how to utilize tools created to help grow your organization. Learn how to post volunteer, donation, and events so the county can support you.

3rd Fridays: Succession Planning for Retiring Executive Directors Transitions like these can set back an organization. Join us for an ongoing conversation. Together we can create a path, sharing ideas and best practices.

3rd Thursdays: Volunteer Management Network 8AM to 9:30AM Don't Go It Alone! Invest in yourself by connecting with a network of resourceful McHenry County Volunteer Managers. Share your skills, ask questions, give advice, find new tools

4th Wednesdays: Brown Bag GLS Conversation 11:30 AM to 1PM Bring your lunch, bring your business cards, and join in the conversation. - On video each month will be a speaker from the 2016 or 2017 Global Leadership Summit.

THE
McHENRY COUNTY
COMMUNITY
FOUNDATION

AN AFFILIATE OF
THE CHICAGO COMMUNITY TRUST

FOR DETAILS VISIT

620 Dakota St Crystal Lake IL 60012 (Back 2 story building) 815-344-4483

Volunteercentermchenrycounty.org